

Fluoropolymers Division Spring 2008 Conference

Kiawah Island Resort

April 13-15, 2008

Sunday April 13, 2008

9:40 a.m.

Open Golf, Kiawah Island Ocean Course

The Ocean Course at Kiawah Island Golf Resort is the proud host of the 2007 Senior PGA and the 2012 PGA Championships. The Ocean Course will become only the fourth course to host each of the PGA of America's major championships.

The Ocean Course gained instant notoriety as the host of the most dramatic "War by the Shore," a battle decided literally by the final putt of Sunday's final match in 1991's Ryder Cup Matches. In 1997, The Ocean Course hosted the World Cup of Golf, with the world's finest golfers from 32 countries competing in the stroke play tournament. The inaugural UBS Cup took place on the course in 2001, and in 2003 the course hosted the World Cup Championships World Cup. The PGA Professional National Championship was played in June 2005.

The Ocean Course made its big screen debut in November 2000 when the movie "The Legend of Bagger Vance" opened at theaters nation-wide.

4:00 –6:00 p.m.

Executive Committee Meeting
Colleton 1 & 2

6:00 –7:30 p.m.

Welcome Reception
Vanderhorst 1-4

Monday, April 14, 2008

Spouse/Guest Activities

9:00 - 10:00 a.m.

Buffet Breakfast
Colleton 1 & 2

The General Session will be held in Governor's Hall AB

8:00 – 8:30 a.m.

Continental Breakfast

8:30 - 9:30 a.m.

Issues Management Committee Update

9:30 – 10:00 a.m.

Break

10:00 – 10:30 a.m.

International Trade Update (Amy Sherman, SPI)

Amy Sherman joined The Society of the Plastics Industry (SPI) in September 2007 as Director of International Trade and Trade Statistics. Prior to SPI, Amy served as Program Analyst for the U.S. Commercial Service within the International Trade Administration, where she facilitated export promotion and investment in Russia and Eurasia. Amy holds an MBA from The George Washington University and a BA in International Studies from Bentley College.

10:30 - 11:30 a.m.

Economic Update (Robert Fry, DuPont)

Robert Fry is a Senior Associate Economist, DuPont Economist's Office. Mr. Fry is on the Board of Directors for the National Association for Business Economics, and is a member of the Conference of Business Economists. He has, B.S., Economics from Ohio University, and an A.M. and Ph.D. in Economics from Harvard University.

Robert Fry has been named among the top forecasters by The Wall Street Journal, USA Today, and Bloomberg. In November 2005, they won the prestigious Lawrence R. Klein Award for Blue Chip Forecast Accuracy, making DuPont the only three-time winner of this award

11:30 – 1:30 p.m.

Lunch on your own

1:30 – 4:00 p.m.

Breakout Sessions:

* Custom Coaters Section

Governor's Hall AB

* Processors Section

Colleton 1 & 2

* Wire and Cable Section

Moultrie

5:30 – 6:30 p.m.

Reception

Town Center Mall

Dinner on your own

Tuesday, April 15, 2008

The General Session will be held in Governor's Hall AB

7:30 – 8:00 a.m.

Continental Breakfast

8:00 – 8:30 a.m.

FPD Division Business Meeting

8:30 - 9:00 a.m.

SPI Issues and Goals (Bill Carteaux, SPI)

SPI President Bill Carteaux began his tenure at the association in March 2005. He came to SPI from Demag Plastics Group Corp., where he was named president and chief executive officer in 2002. Based in the Cleveland area, Demag Plastics Group Corp. is one of the nation's top two manufacturers of injection molding machines for the plastics industry. Carteaux previously served as the company's vice president of sales and marketing.

Prior to joining Demag, Carteaux spent eight years with a manufacturer of vertical injection molding machines, including four years as its president. He has been actively involved in numerous leadership roles with SPI for more than 10 years, serving on the Machinery Board and as Vice Chair, then Chair of SPI's Equipment Council. While a member, Carteaux also served as vice chair of SPI's Strategic Management Group for Industry Growth and Development, and chair of both the NPE finance committee and the NPE operations committee. He's been active in standards development and on SPI's Finance, Administration and Membership Committee.

Prior to accepting his post as president, Bill was slated to serve as vice chairman of SPI's Executive Board for the 2005 term. He has an MBA from Indiana Wesleyan University and a BS from Purdue, where, in 1998, he was the first recipient of the Outstanding Alumnus Award from the University's Agricultural and Biological Engineering Department.

9:00 – 9:30 a.m.

Wire & Cable/Green Building Initiative Update (Melissa Hockstad, SPI)

Over the past several years the development of green building and product-based programs has increased dramatically. Government agencies, non-profit organizations and others have jumped on the green bandwagon as the next great initiative. This presentation will provide insight into current green activities, SPI's involvement in critical green projects, and the dangers of program development without industry input.

Melissa Hockstad joined The Society of the Plastics Industry (SPI) in June 2006 as Senior Technical Director, New and Existing Technologies. Prior to SPI, Melissa served as Performance Improvement Director for the Washington, D.C.-based Synthetic Organic Chemical Manufacturers Association (SOCMA) where she led the association's* environmental, health, safety and security program. Prior to joining SOCMA, Melissa was a Senior Engineer with Basell Polyolefins. Melissa holds a M.S. in Materials Science and Engineering from the Pennsylvania State University and a B.S. in Engineering Science from the University of Virginia.

9:30 – 10:00 a.m.

Break

10:00 – 11:00 a.m.

Keynote Speaker: Greg Schwem – Business Humor

Chicago Magazine called Greg Schwem “America’s favorite corporate funnyman!” Washington Techway Magazine called his show a “welcome refreshing change.” MultiFamily Executive Magazine said his performance was “one of the funniest they had ever witnessed.”

Greg calls his show “Comedy With a Byte.” Full of clean, fast-paced humor that pokes fun at the business world, his presentation has entertained audiences coast to coast. Clients such as IBM, Motorola, McDonald’s, Siemens, Radio Shack, Blue Cross/Blue Shield, Verizon Wireless and Sprint have invited Greg to share his hilarious views on technology and today’s business environment. Greg delivers with observations on topics such as technical support lines, monotonous business meetings, acronyms, “frequently” asked questions, cell phone addiction and home office workers.

A former NBC television reporter, Greg has numerous national television appearances to his credit and has shared the concert stage with the likes of Celine Dion, Jay Leno and LeAnn Rimes. In early 2005, Greg launched a separate corporate show featuring a drop-dead impersonation of Microsoft Bill Gates, complete with makeup designed by Academy award-winning artist Kevin Haney.

11:00 a.m.

Lunch on your own

12:00 – 5:00 p.m.

Golf Tournament, Kiawah Island Turtle Point Golf Club

Jack Nicklaus once said that his number one goal in golf course design was to “make the player use his mind ahead of his muscles – to control his emotions sufficiently to really think through his options before drawing a club from the bag.” Turtle Point Golf Club at Kiawah Island Golf Resort is one of Jack’s early designs and steeped in the finest traditions of classic golf course architecture.

Turtle Point rated a near perfect “4 ½ Stars” in the 2006 Golf Digest “Best Places to Play” golf course guidebook. When players go down the list of what makes a great golf course, whether it’s shot values, memorability, design variety, resistance to scoring, aesthetics or any other criteria they may use, Turtle Point is sure to score high.

6:30 – 9:00 p.m.

Reception/Dinner Event: An Evening of Mystery, Mischief and Murder!
Osprey Point Clubhouse

Gunfire rings out through the air ... the room falls quickly to silence ... an unsuspecting diner has been shot ... the adventure begins! Your plans for a quiet with fine food, service and fellowship have suddenly turned into a "Whodunit" thriller. In the tradition of Agatha Christie and Sherlock Holmes, this engaging event presents an entertaining evening full of suspense, intrigue and melodrama. Everyone is both sleuth and suspect involved in the effort to solve this mysterious crime while enjoying a delicious dinner and a hilarious sequence of events.

* Speakers and/or topics are subject to change. Appropriate notice will be given as changes are made. Please also note that room locations are subject to change.